Andrea Powell in Gobbeldygook

One woman, nine characters, a racist wombat and some utter nonsense...

Well known for her alter ego Ethel Chop, and renowned for her characterisations, the brilliant Andrea Powell presents an array of spanking new characters to explore the utter nonsense we all utter when attempting to communicate with each other, ignorance and racism a common thread.

Green Room Award nominee, Melbourne and Perth Fringe award winner, described by The Age as a funny and brave performer, Andrea once again brings the talents of dramaturge Judith Lucy and director Greg Stone to her performance, this year appearing at The Annexe at Comedy @ Trades.

In 2006 her show, How Do You Like Your Eggs? premiered at the Melbourne Fringe Festival and received a High Recommendation from the Comedy Judging panel. A successful author of the famous Ethel Chop book "Strain Your Gherkins" Andrea has also directed theatre productions for the 2006 MICF, Midsumma and Melbourne Fringe 2007.

Andrea's Gobbeldygook will premiere at the 2008 Melbourne International Comedy Festival and then travel to Edinburgh.

"Excellent comic timing" – The Age

"Powell's theatrical dexterity is first class" – Melbourne Star Observer

"A splendid array of characters." — Sunday Age
