Anna Joy in The Pilgrim's Regress

This show was to be called Joy of Sex: Liberty, Life and the Pursuit of a Penis, but Anna Joy didn't want to appear shallow. It's a cabaret about how a nice Catholic girl becomes a filthy slurry... In a good way. Bring your Mum, she'll love it.

The show is sexually explicit, endearingly honest and, musically enriched. Anna Joy has the voice of an angel and the mouth of a trooper - accompanying herself on the piano and is joined on stage by her brother on saxophone. The music spans genres including Gregorian Chant, a Lenny Cohen parody and an original number about going through life looking a bit like a lesbian.

Searching for Truth, Anna Joy is on a journey. Twenty-five and single with a penchant for boys and their appendages, Anna Joy's mother is a baby-boomer born-again Christian of Jewish heritage who pastors a country Church. Her father is a German-Palestinian convert from a religious community founded by his fanatical ancestors and, in an act of adolescent rebellion, Anna Joy became a Roman Catholic.

Yes, she's a bit f***ed up. Share in the journey. Share in the Joy.
