Die Roten Punkte – SUPER MUSIKANT (SUPER MUSICIAN)

Berlin's Prince & Princess of Punk, Otto & Astrid Rot, return with their new absurd and sweaty rock'n'roll odyssey – Super Musikant (Super Musician).

The minimalist brother/sister pop-punk band is here to perform a series of shows for the 2008 Melbourne International Comedy Festival.

Die Roten Punkte (that's The Red Dots for those of you who don't speak German) are the self-proclaimed "Best Band In The World". The Gazette Montreal describes them as a "sonic collision between Plastic Bertrand, Kraftwerk and early Ramones" and they have quickly gained widespread acclaim for being a "must-see act". The songs are ridiculously infectious and their live show is the one of the most irreverent and hilarious gigs you are ever likely to see.

After an impressively long tour of North America, Die Roten Punkte have spent the summer in Melbourne recording their new album Super Musikant with producer Ben Hense from Mr Jigga.

In a recent press conference, Otto choked back tears and stressed that the siblings' prolonged stay in Melbourne was definitely not due to Astrid being in drug and alcohol rehab, "It's all nasty media lies...we just needed a little extra time in the studio to make a Super Album", he insisted.

"fist pumping fun of the highest order" - Eye Weekly, Toronto
"the funniest show at the festival" - Planet S Magazine, Canada
