

KIDS' COMEDY

Tumbleweed Theatrical Productions

Presents

Alice - Through the Looking Glass

Alice is back, and this time she's found herself in a topsy turvy Looking-Glass Land – home of the Tweedles, Humpty Dumpty and walking, talking chess pieces.

Tumbleweed Productions (Comicide, Princess Cabaret) will follow up Alice in Wonderland (MICF 2009, April 1-12) with another magical adventure for Alice. Brydie Lee-Kennedy (Alice), Sophie Miller, Patrick Magee and Jo Bourke will once again sing, dance and play their way through Lewis Carroll's imagination in a fun-filled show for the whole family.

Produced by Julia Lenton, this show is again designed for ages 5 and over and will include pantomime, storytelling, traditional theatre and musical comedy.

The cast are very familiar with one another and have a strong creative bond after working on previous productions together, most recently in Princess Cabaret and Comicide receiving excellent reviews.

“Highly recommended” Dan Ziffer, The Age

* Alice – Through the Looking Glass follows a season of Alice in Wonderland, April 1-12 (not Mondays)
