Miss Right

Sick of being suffocated by sanctimonious and smarmy left-wingers while the world goes down the toilet?

Looking for someone to snatch political comedy from the bleeding hearts and get to the hard facts?

In these difficult times, the conservatives need a saviour and Courteney Hocking is the straight-talking, right-thinking maverick for the job. She's hitting the socialists right in the middle of their bleeding-heart pinko nest, Trades Hall, and setting about restoring the balance.

Courteney has performed her unique brand of political and social satire for Amnesty International, Bob Brown and the Greens Party and the Your Rights @ Work Campaign, but she's learnt from her mistakes. Having eaten more lentil burgers at left-wing rallies than you can poke a biodegradable stick at, she has escaped the evil clutches of the socialists and turned to the side of Right.

A writer and performer in the sketch comedy group The Anarchist Guild Social Committee, she has written for Channel Ten's Good News Week and co-hosted radio on Fox FM with Lawrence Leung and Triple R with Daniel Kitson. Her 2008 MICF show, Mixing Pop & Politics, won "Best Political Show" at Trades Hall.

"A whip-smart twenty-something with no little perspicacity..." Helen Razer, The Age

"Engaging, down-to-earth company, with a cheeky glint in her eye and bags of unassuming charm." Steve Bennett, Chortle (UK)
