Danny McGinlay - Food Dude

It's 3am after a night on the town. You're happy but you're hungry and the contents of your pantry can only be described as 'eclectic'. So do you go to bed hungry? Do you settle for cereal? Or do you take a leaf out of Danny McGinlay's book and invent something unique?

After years of living the comedian lifestyle (which involves getting home late and improvising dinners from random ingredients, sometimes after a couple of drinks) McGinlay has created some truly amazing dishes.

Meals created in the wee hours, spurred on by the inspiring phrase: "I wonder if..." "Cake in a cup?" "Chops in a toaster, anyone?"

Danny McGinlay returns to present his new show Food Dude. A celebration of all the "meals" that qualified chefs wouldn't touch with a ten-foot pole.

Food Dude is presented as a real live cooking show, full demonstration and maybe even some taste testing...if you're game!

* 2008 saw McGinlay support Danny Bhoys' tour and appears in Nicolas Cage's new thriller 'The Knowing'.

"Hilarious... Stunning... Just don't book him for a catering gig!" Helen Razer, The Age

"A very funny show... McGinlay is an assured and animated performer, like an over-caffeinated Puck with the ability to weave a rollicking yarn" The Sunday Age
