Geraldine Quinn – Hex and the City

Ginger. Female. Single. Childless. In 1645, five-star rock comedian Geraldine Quinn would have been burned as a witch.

Mistaken for Satan's bit of rough, in her new show Hex and the City, Quinn discovers she's enemy #1. She has 60 minutes to restore the world's sanity before her accusers produce their Jiffy Firelighters and get burny.

Geraldine Quinn (Dumb Things, SEXDEATHBOWIE) explodes the secular world's obsession with 'the other side' in this blistering rock opera about fear, heresy, judgement and spending more time trying to contact the dead than it takes to write a postcard to your mum.

With award-winning songwriting (Green Room Awards, 2007) and trademark irreverence, Hex is a hand-clappin', thigh-slappin' wild ride towards rationalism. All in a tutu and killer heels.

Rockwiz, Comedy Channel, ABC's Comedy Hour, sold out 2006-2008
