Putting Hats On Ducks

Hold onto your headwear for this silly tale of David versus Goliath proportions that puts confetti and felt back on the theatre map.

Putting Hats On Ducks tells the epic story of three farmers who fight to get their land back from The Big Company through grit, determination and the occasional Powerpoint presentation. Over hills and under sea they will have to go to save their farms and thus save the day.

Can they defeat the E-kidnapping Echidna? Could they possibly find The Wise Old Turtle? And will they ever find out who the shadowy Big Boss is?

With handmade props and colourful costumes, Putting Hats On Ducks is comedy theatre for adults who like a large serving of joy and whimsy.

This exciting new show is written, produced and performed by 'A Lot of Bread' - Lucy Shaw, Courtney Trathan and Madeleine Tucker. These Comedy Festival debutantes first crossed paths at Deakin University whilst studying Creative Arts and quickly became artistic collaborators.

Their first full-length show, 'All Aboard The Fizzy Train', was part of the 2008 Melbourne Fringe Festival, where it was given an extended season due to popular demand and critical acclaim.
