Scenes from our Loungeroom

"SCENES FROM OUR LOUNGEROOM" is a show about an inner-Melbourne family of 7 created, produced & performed by an inner-Melbourne family of 7. The youngest performer in the family is 6, the oldest isn't.

All the family are mostly onstage throughout the show, Mum & Dad trying calmly to tell their story while the kids calmly raise hell, dispensing the wrongest of parenting advice, stuffing around with the soundtrack & wandering about onstage for no reason.

It's chaotically ironic: this is the real-life aspect of their story. In their Loungeroom everything is alive - from the malevolent & narcissistic Washing Pile to the shyly elegant Foodscraps.

Scenes ricochet wildly from the metaphorical to the mundane, fact blurs into fairytale; like an Absurdist documentary it's absolute truth punctuated by complete fantasy.

Their story also traverses time & territory - from a mythical steeltown 20 years ago, through the outback west of Bourke, to Bourke St today. The production's vivid dance, music & shambolic makeshiftability allow it to be both comfortable & bizarre - a unique, compelling & award-winning show.
