The Paradoxical Adventures of Lawrence Leung and Andrew McClelland: Time Ninjas

Lawrence Leung and Andrew McClelland have stumbled upon time travel. Now they're going forward to the past to make things better. Hopefully. A mind-bending comedy that will go down in history... or potentially destroy it.

Lawrence and Andrew are award-winning comedians whose festival appearances include Melbourne, Edinburgh, Adelaide and Auckland. Lawrence's shows include Lawrence Leung Learns to Breakdance and Sucker, while Andrew's past shows include Mix Tape and The Somewhat Accurate History of Pirates. This Comedy Festival sees them reuniting as a comic duo for the first time since 2005's hit The Somewhat Secret Secret Society Show.

Lawrence and Andrew began performing together while still at high school and at university co-founded comedy group the Improbables. They have also worked together on radio and presented a series of sketches on Foxtel's The Comedy Channel.

In early 2009 Andrew will become one the few comics invited to perform at the Perth International Arts Festival, while Lawrence's debut television show Lawrence Leung's Choose Your Own Adventure will premiere in late March on ABC1.

"An immeasurably enjoyable lark of a show... praise comes as easily as the belly laughs. You'd be hard-pressed to have more fun in any other festival show" The Age

"Together they are comedy dynamite" Chortle (UK)
