

BENEFIT SHOW

Bella Union
Presents

Trade Aid

Wanna laugh and do something unquestionably good at the same time? No, no, put your pants back on! We're talking Trade Aid. Now in its fourth year, Bella Union presents three spectacular benefit events.

The Anarchist Guild Social Committee (AGSC) calls to order their first Annual General Meeting on Saturday 4 April. It's the cutting edge sketch comedy you've come to expect from the AGSC as well as special guests galore! Proceeds go to Peter Mac Cancer Research

Backed by a live band, you too can cut-the-rug with the best of them at So You Drink? You Can Dance! on Saturday 11 April. Dress up, get a cocktail into you and hit the floor! Miss Anna wants to see your moves and we're offering glamorous prizes for the best of the worst. Proceeds go to Autism Victoria

And to round out the good works, on Saturday 18 April the ASRC Benefit returns. Last year our star-studded line-up tackled Prince. Now Major Tom's getting a work-out in Life on Mars?. Proceeds go to Asylum Seekers' Resource Centre

"What a night it was!" Australian Stage

"So You Drink? You Can Dance! delivered on its promise ..." The Age

"It will sell-out, so book your tickets before you go" Beat
